

I wish the Do Not Call laws should at least remain as they are, and at best be written to make it harder for anyone to violate our privacy if we do not want it.